IFA Executive Director Returns Home After Accident

Pismo Beach, CA– July 3, 2012–Bert Goldberg, Founder and Executive Director of the International Factoring Association (IFA) and American Factoring Association (AFA), was involved in a kiteboarding accident in Pismo Beach, CA, on May 25th.

After two and a half weeks at a local hospital followed by three weeks at a rehabilitation center in Northern California, Bert has returned home. Bert has full mobility in his upper body and is still working to regain lower body mobility, which has improved tremendously since the accident. Bert continues to remain positive and has seen no interruption in the services that the IFA or AFA provides to its members. He is looking forward to returning to the office and back to serving the Factoring community.

Bert would like to thank everyone for all of their prayers, support and encouragement during this hard time.

About the International Factoring Association

Headquartered in Pismo Beach, California and with over 400 corporate members, the International Factoring Association is the largest association of commercial finance companies in the world. Members include factoring companies, asset based lenders and other receivable finance companies. Since 1999, the International Factoring Association has provided a forum for member organizations to meet and discuss issues and concerns, share best practices, disseminate information and promote a single voice to the marketplace. The principal spokesperson for the factoring and receivable finance industry is the International Factoring Association's Bert Goldberg. For more information visit www.factoring.org
